

I am concerned about the attempt by the Consumer Bankers Association to weaken the telephone privacy law in Indiana by imposing the federal "established business relationship" exemption. This would allow telemarketers to resume their annoying sales tactics after the state of Indiana successfully silenced this practice with the "no-call" list offered to hoosier consumers. Please do not allow the telemarketers to begin disturbing my family again. Thank you.